30. Responsible gaming

30.1.

Gambling should be treated as a fun pastime, and not as a means to generate income. Whilst the majority of the population can treat gambling as recreation and spend only what they can afford to risk, for some it can be more difficult. It is useful to keep track of the time and the amount of money spent at an online casino daily.

30.2.

If you think that you start spending more money than you can afford, or in case gaming starts interfering with your normal daily routines, we strongly advise considering several measures that can help, such as setting Personal Limits on your gaming activities, opting for Self-Exclusion or contacting one of the organizations detailed below.

30.2.1.

GamCare, the leading authority providing counselling, advice and practical help in addressing the social impact of gambling in the UK, can be visited at: www.gamcare.org.uk. Its confidential helpline is: 0845 6000 133. Non-UK residents can contact GamCare for details of International support organizations.

30.2.2.

Gamblers Anonymous is a fellowship of men and women who have joined together to do something about their own gambling problem and help other compulsive gamblers do the same. There are regional fellowships around the world. The Gamblers Anonymous international service site is at: www.gamblersanonymous.org.uk.

30.2.3.

Gambling Therapy provides support and counselling for anyone adversely affected by gambling. Members of the Gambling Therapy Team operate from locations both within the UK and internationally. Its site can be accessed at: www.gamblingtherapy.org.

31. Personal limits and self-exclusion
